"Daily Poppins is one of the fastest growing cleaning franchises in the UK, cleaning over 14000 homes per month plus commercial premises. To support its growth and generate an additional revenue stream, we decided that carpet cleaning was a natural progression for the business.

Having considered a number of suppliers in the marketplace and tested their equipment, we elected to form a partnership with Rug Doctor.

We have been delighted with the results thus far with positive feedback from both our franchisees and clients and look to develop the service across our network."

Trevor White, Daily Poppins, Head of Franchise Operations, UK & Ireland
